

Interview Preparation

•
•

UEL Hospitality Management

Personal Information of Awais Ahmed

Awais Ahmed is a student at the University of East London, pursuing an International Year One in Hospitality Management. He holds an ICS qualification and is preparing for an admission interview.

Educational Pathway Overview

Awais Ahmed completed the ICS qualification, leading to an International Year One in Hospitality Management. This pathway at UEL paves the way for a full BA (Hons) degree in Hospitality Management.

Why Study in the UK?

Experience a world-class education and culture

Why Choose UEL?

Strong support and practical learning environment

Course Overview and Details

The International Year One in Hospitality Management focuses on essential areas such as hospitality operations, customer service, and event planning, and is designed to be completed in one year, leading to a full BA (Hons) degree.

Key Learning Areas

Important modules in hospitality education

English for Academic Purposes

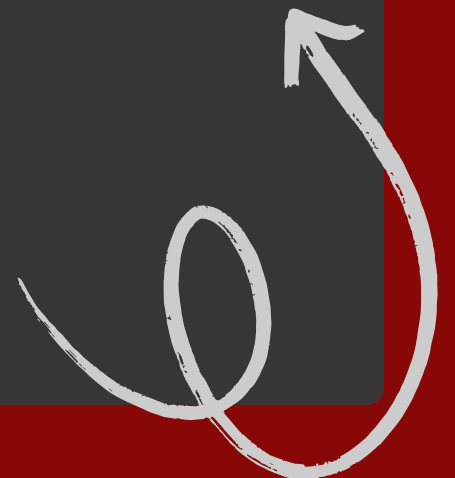

This module enhances academic language skills, focusing on reading, writing, and presentation techniques essential for success in higher education within a multicultural environment.

Hospitality and Tourism

Covering essential industry concepts, this module explores the interrelationship between hospitality and tourism sectors, emphasizing customer service excellence and operational strategies in a global context.

Business Management

In this module, students learn key management theories and practices, developing leadership skills and strategic planning abilities necessary for effective decision-making in the hospitality industry.

Favorite Modules

Key Areas of Academic Focus

Business Management

This module emphasizes leadership and strategic planning skills, equipping students with the essential tools to excel in managerial roles within the hospitality industry.

Hospitality Marketing

Students learn effective marketing strategies and customer engagement techniques, which are crucial for successfully promoting hospitality services and creating meaningful guest experiences in a competitive market.

Mental Wealth

This module focuses on developing the hospitality professional, fostering essential skills such as resilience, adaptability, and emotional intelligence, vital for thriving in the dynamic hospitality sector.

Career Aspirations

Future Roles in Hospitality Management

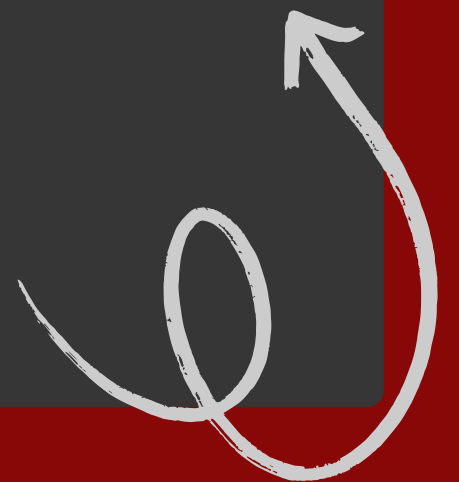

I intend to return to Pakistan after graduation, aspiring to become a Hospitality Manager or Hotel Operations Manager, targeting prominent employers like Marcopolo Resorts & Tours and Accor Hotels.

Future Contributions

Enhancing Pakistan's Hospitality Landscape

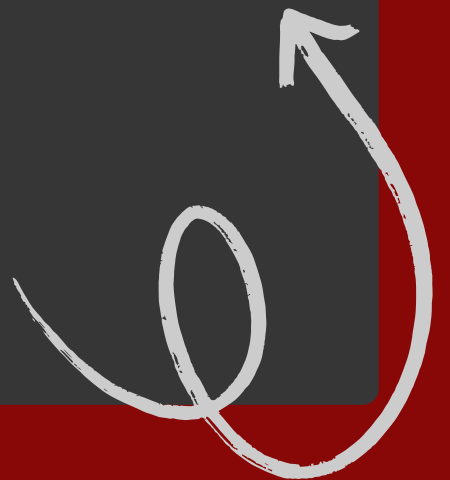

My goal is to actively contribute to Pakistan's hospitality and tourism industry, utilizing international standards and best practices acquired at UEL to foster growth and innovation.

Financial and Visa Overview

Essential details for study preparation

My father will be my sponsor, supporting my studies. I've noted the IHS fees and confirmed financial readiness through a mature bank statement illustrating sufficient funds for living expenses.

Accommodation Options in London

Comparing on-campus and private housing

Choosing UEL Over Leeds Beckett

Although Leeds Beckett University was a contender, I opted for UEL due to its superior location in London, providing enhanced industry connections and practical exposure vital for my career in hospitality management.

Anticipated Challenges

Adjusting to a new academic environment

Moving to the UK presents cultural adjustments, academic differences, and potential homesickness. Navigating these challenges will require resilience, support systems, and proactive engagement with the university community.

Coping Strategies

Effective ways to adjust and thrive

Engaging in clubs and social activities helps build connections, while consistent communication with family provides emotional support. Utilizing university services ensures access to resources for a smoother transition.

YOU WEEKINE'OL
FOJM DE LIXITELLITY

Mystailsrsom fercparab:catder.

UNIVERSITY
LONDON

Thank You

Ready for success at UEL